at Auckland

Plaint No. 2819
(When writing please quote this number)

BETWEEN MESSRS. HESTICH, CURTIS, SIMMONS & ASSOCIATES of Auckland suing as a firm surveyors and town planners Plaintiff
AND G.H. GILLANDERS
of Kawa Kawa Bay, Clevedon R.D. farmer Defendant.

TAKE NOTICE that the plaintiff claims to recover from you the sum of £ $1158.75
as set out in the statement of claim annexed ~~being the balance due from the defendant~~
(Delete if inapplicable)
to the plaintiff for the preparation of a subdivisional scheme plan, a subdivisional Land Transfer Plan and a motel development plan done on the defendants property at Kawa Kawa Bay, <sup>such work being done between November 1967 and February 1968</sup> and full particulars of which have been given and such balance being made up as follows:

Total $1258.75
Less Paid 100.00 M
Balance due $1158.75

If you admit the whole claim, you may, within seven days of service of this summons on you, inclusive of the day of service, either—

- (a) File in the office of the Court and serve on the plaintiff a confession for the full amount and the costs noted on this summons; or
- (b) Pay into Court the full amount of the claim and the costs noted on this summons,— and no further costs will be incurred.

If you dispute the whole of the claim, you should within seven days of service of this summons on you inclusive of the day of service, file in the office of the Court and serve on the plaintiff a notice of intention to defend.

If you dispute part of the claim, you may within seven days of service of this summons on you, inclusive of the day of service, either—

- (a) File in the office of the Court and serve on the plaintiff a confession for the part you admit; or
- (b) Pay the part you admit into Court, and serve notice of payment into Court on the plaintiff.

You should also, within the same period, file in the office of the Court and serve on the plaintiff a notice of intention to defend in respect of the claim you dispute.

If you have a counterclaim, you should, within seven days of service of this summons on you, inclusive of the day of service, file in the office of the Court and serve on the plaintiff a statement of such counterclaim.

If you do not file a notice of intention to defend or a counterclaim, the plaintiff is entitled to enter judgment for the full amount of the claim.

Forms of notice of intention to defend, confession, and notice of payment into Court may be obtained at any office of the Court.

If you file a notice of intention to defend or a counterclaim, or if you pay or confess part only of the claim and instead of entering judgment for the full amount the plaintiff requests that the action be brought on for hearing the Registrar will send you a notice of the day on which the action will be heard and disposed of.

If you do nothing, the plaintiff may enter judgment against you for the full amount of his claim and costs and may proceed to enforce his judgment.

Dated this 11th ~~23rd~~ day of March 1968.
